The WEST BOCA MOOSELETTER

LODGE 204 / CHAPTER 2273

April 2015

From your Editor:

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As you may know, a few months ago the editor of the Communicator, Barbara Werner, has resigned from that post. It must have been forever, so it seems, that she has taken care of the newsletter, so I like to thank you, Barbara, on behalf of everybody for doing such a tremendous job for so many years.

Many of you, including myself, felt something was missing in the newsletter-less months since then, so after some conversation forth and back I've decided to step in and run the newsletter for the foreseeable future.

Of course, any new editor likes to change things, and I'm no exception. You may have noticed already the name change of this publication. We'll plan to make this a monthly publication. Since I'm also running the website westbocamoose.com (not the .org) there will be a closer relation between that site and the newsletter, hoping to have more timely and accurate information on the site if things changes after the newsletter are released. This is just as because me being in charge of this publication, I'm more involved of being notified myself of any updates to be intended for publication.

When being assigned the editor position a couple of weeks ago, I set myself the ambitious goal of having the first issue out by April 1st, also known as April Fool's Day (what about that...?). Well, here we go, but because of the time constraints, some features known from the Communicator are not included here, e.g. the preview calendar for the next month. As time goes on, things will be added to this newsletter as time goes on.

If you have any opinion on this newsletter, please let me know. Suggestions are always welcome.

I hope you enjoy this first edition of the West Boca Mooseletter.
