We will be happy to talk with you more in details. Please feel free to approach us regarding this.*

Currently our West Boca Chapter membership is plus with a number of 276. We appreciate all you do as members as it takes all of us asking our family & friends to join. However let's not forget about those members we haven't seen in a while or that may have expired. May I suggest making a phone call and asking them if everything is ok and invite them back. Membership is vital to the success of our twin cities Mooseheart and Moosehaven so again please help us reach out and invite them to come join us in our fraternal fun.

Love at the Lodge

In honor of Valentine's day, I am going to tell you a little story about love. I didn't think I could fall in love again after I got divorced. I had practically lost hope. I understood that at my age (I will be turning 60 this summer) companionship was obviously going to be what I had to look for, but then unexpectedly, I was shot by Cupid's arrow and it happened right here at our lodge.

I met Mike one day, as he sat quietly at the bar and what attracted me to him was his smile. As he drank his beer, I would watch him and his reaction to everything. He always smiled when someone would walk by, laugh at everyone's banter and genuinely listen to everyone's stories. Well, it didn't take long for me to spark up a conversation and find out what a wonderful man he was. I guess it started with him telling me about his pets. He has 10 cats and 4 dogs. Wow, I thought this man has a generous heart, but then what really got to me was that he said he also took care of his grandson. He had full custody of a little boy of 7. Okay, now I wanted to know more about this man. Every time I saw him I would sit next to him, talk about the day's events, his grandson, work, current events, etc. He doesn't live near so his visits were usually on weekends and I truly began to look forward to seeing him. One night, he walked me to my car and as I was about to leave he kissed me goodnight. I think that was when Cupid worked his magic. As I drove home, I thought to myself, "I really want this man to call me," but I hadn't given him my number. Luckily, he got my number from someone and called the following morning to invite me to lunch. I was so excited! I felt like a 15 year old again.

When we met up for lunch as I walked into the restaurant, I honestly had butterflies in my stomach. Really? Me a middle aged woman with butterflies? No it must be gas, I thought....but when I saw him and that smile, I knew. I was in love. Who said love couldn't happen at my age?

I read an article recently about love at an older age and what it said was true. The article was written by Eve Pell and it explained her story of falling love at 67. It was a beautiful story but what hit me most was what she said about old love. She states that old love is different....we have been through enough of life's ups and downs to know who we are and we have learned to compromise. We know about death because we have seen loved ones die. We have made mistakes, ill-considered decisions and understand that if a relationship fails we'll survive that too....so why not let our hearts have one last blossom?

Some of you know me and know that I like to gamble. Well, I am going to gamble that Cupid made the right choice. My heart has blossomed. I love again and it feels great. I am smiling, singing and cooking again. As I take this new journey, I am wagering that it is going to be a long and happy venture, one that won't be taken alone and will be filled with love and adventure. Thanks Cupid!
