From your Editor:

Since the re-launch of the West Boca MooseLetter ("WBML") last month I have received quite a bit of positive feedback. Some of you even got emotional, I'm told. Now, that is a bit exaggerated in my opinion - it is just a newsletter, after all. Nevertheless, I appreciate it.

As you might know, I am also now an elected officer of this Lodge. As such, I'm now in contact with the leadership of this Lodge more than I have ever been before. The Officers' meeting gives you more insights than you would get from the general meetings.

We talked about the print edition of the WBML and how to cover the cost of printing. In the near future, we will have advertising (mostly business cards) back. Another idea is to add Moose Boosters to the WBML. This is a list of members who pay some fees to be included and listed there, optionally as a Memorial Booster ("in memory of..."). The WBML never had this, but the WBML predecessor "Communicator" had it. If you are an oldtimer, you may remember this.

This issue is a little bit late - there were a flurry of flyers in a short time frame I had to finish (what a crazy idea to tell the administrator that I also could do flyers...). I apologize for that, but it is finally complete.

I hope you enjoy the 62nd edition of the West Boca MooseLetter.
