From your Editor:

I have been asked about the newsletter. As you may remember, a few years ago, the operation of the West Boca Moose Lodge was shut down due to a global health crisis, and because of this, the publication of the West Boca MooseLetter ("WBML") ceased. When the lodge re-opened a bit later, the then-Governor decided "to go in a different direction." Okay, fine with me.

But since then, I have heard numerous times that something is missing, and if or when I'm doing the newsletter again. That kind of stuff.

Feeling that there is some need, I decided to push some buttons and possibly re-launch the WBML after a 4-year hiatus. Yes, it has been that long.

So, I'm back in the saddle again. Besides doing the WBML, I'm also the chairperson for the communication committee (again).

Of course, there have been some changes since then. For one, we are now One Moose, and the governing board of officers consists of both men and women.

Sadly, some members who were helping with the contents of the WBML back then have passed away, most importantly Faye Murtland (with flyers) and Russ Loland (title page design). I will try to send a copy of the WBML up to them in Heaven.

This issue is a short one - I am suffering from severe CRS syndrome: just forgetting how I did it before, and the re-learning curve is steeper than I thought.

I hope you enjoy the 61st edition of the West Boca MooseLetter.
